

Database Administration Assistant

Phnom Penh, Cambodia | Closing Date: 20 February 2019

Apply to job@sathapana.com.kh

Job Description

We are looking for a Database Administration Assistant who will in charge of database assists for an established organization and ensure an organizational data is well managed.

Responsibilities

- Deploy database continuity and redundancy plans including backup and recovery processes to ensure these creations are effectively delivered
- Execute problem solving by demonstrating and analyzing the complex technical issues to assure the solutions are found and taken efficiently
- Administer database applications, performances and tools by remaining neatly tucked away when they're completely done followed the processes and guidelines
- Review, verify and import the huge datasets with providing an adequate support for internal database users to insure the satisfied service level agreements
- Assist team in maintaining mailing lists, schedules and appointments
- Create a various of specific data objects and structures including tables and indexes
- Deploy security protocols, profiles, passwords and privileges
- Optimize database performance and streamline data handing processes

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Computer Science, information technology, and other related fields
- Other certificates recognized in OCA and Databased Administration are preferred
- At least 1-year-experience in implementing oracle database administration, troubleshooting, and monitoring pluses AIX OS from banking sector is preferred
- Good at Database concept and application software usage
- Good at communication, facilitation, and interpersonal skills
- Be self-motivated, patient, and able to work under pressure
- Be able to work on rotation shift

How to apply

- Interested candidates are encouraged to submit the updated CVs and Cover Letters to job@sathapana.com.kh or sok.socheat@sathapana.com.kh
- For more information, please contact us via 096 958 7777/ 096 418 2222 or go to www.sathapana.com.kh